NURSES TO GIVE LAWN FETE FOR BUILDING FUND

Friday's Program at Garfield Memorial Training School Will Start at 3 P. M.

In an effort to overcome a handicap under which they have struggled for years, the nurses of Garfield Memorial Hospital will on Friday night give a lawn fete to raise funds for building a nurses' home.
There are now more than seventy nurses in training, and, while the nurses' quarters have been enlarged from time to time, there has never been adequate accommodation for them, and conditions at present are very bad.

Friday's program will begin at 3 p. m. and will continue until midnight. There will be the usual attractions—fancy work booths, fortune tellers, a fish pond for the youngsters, and dancing, in addition to a number of new features.

The United States Marine Band will play from 4 to 5 p. m. Children from the city playgrounds will stage an entertainment between 7 and 8 o'clock, and this will be followed by the showing of motion pictures. The evening will close with dancing.

The first class graduated from the Garfield Training School, in 1891, consisted of but four nurses. In times of national disasters, including the San Francisco quake, floods, and fires, and during the Spanish-American war and the world war, Garfield Hospital nurses have been prominent in relief work.

THE Pan-American Union, which has been frequently called the most beautiful building in Washington and which will be shortly pre-empted for the sessions of the conference on the limitation of armament, will be the scene of several interesting entertainments before this takes place. The centennial celebration of the Central American governments will be held there tomorrow evening, with the Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, members of the Cabinet and their wives and others prominent in the official and diplomatic worlds among the guests. The President and Mrs.
Harding are expected to attend if they return from their holiday in time.

Then, today there was a luncheon in the picturesque annex back of the Astor Garden, with the Director General of the Pan-American Union, Dr. Leo S. Rowe, as host. It was given in honor of Sebastian Gelabert, secretary of the treasury of Cuba, and the other members of the special Cuban financial mission at present in Washington—Sebastian Q. Gela-bert, Jr., Jose A. Gelabert and Manuel Despaigne. The Secretary of State, guests asked to meet the visiting financiers included W. P. G. Harding, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, D. R. Crissinger, Comptroller of the Currency, John R.

Mitchell, Vice Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, Boaz Long, general of the Union, used to give

Rowe, does much of his entertain-in an official capacity.

on Armistice Day.

son, commanding the Destroyer Force, has delegated two destroyers to escort her into the harbor from Providence, and the mayor of Newport, Jeremiah P. Mahoney, has requested that the Stars and Stripes be flown from all flag poles that day.

The destroyer Rodgers with Commander Steckel in charge will be the committee boat and among those on the reception committee to meet the America will be Rear
